A Message from our Head of School

Dear CAA Community,

The 2009-2010 school year has been a banner year for the Chicago Academy for the Arts. From our Golden Apple finalist and Presidential Scholar, to the class of 2010 that has collectively garnered over $3.9 million dollars in financial support for college; CAA continues to demonstrate its commitment to develop individuals who are sought after artists, thinkers, and leaders.

With the school's inception twenty-nine years ago, CAA established the founding principles on which the school continues to strive today, intellectual curiosity, unbridled passion for the arts, and deep respect for one another.

With an impending recession resulting from the crash of the real estate market, the banking industry and financial markets, we entered the current school year with economists predicting the worst economy in modern history. We are eternally grateful to our donors, parents, faculty, staff, and students who worked together to help the school provide the quality of education that has become the cornerstone of a CAA education. We appreciate everyone who continues to help CAA remain a vibrant community that helps shape the leaders of tomorrow.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, staff and students of the Chicago Academy for the Arts, we extend a very special thank to everyone who helped make this a fantastic year for CAA. To the class of 2010, we wish you the very best that life has to offer.

Sincerely,

Pamela Jordan
